Announcements:

You will have two tests this week on the same material. Be ready for both!

There is not lab report due on Monday and this is one of the rare chapters that does not have a lab with it. Your next lab is a Redox titration in the next chapter.

On March 20th you will have the Chemistry Olympiad. That is a minimum day and you will miss periods 1, 2, and part of period 3. You will need to report to the library as soon as you get to school that day. You should be going over past exams and preparing for the exam.
